Across the Great Divide

Play a game with a partner. First, cut out the cards. Then place the cards facedown in rows. Turn over three cards at a time. If the numbers belong to the same fact family, remove the cards and go again. If the cards do not belong to the same fact family, turn the cards over. Now it is your partner’s turn. Keep playing until no more fact families can be made.